

LOVE LETTER TO:

825 Johnston Drive
Watchung, NJ

Having lived in several countries and houses over the years we can hands down say this is our favourite. The list is abundant but here are some of the reasons we have loved calling 825 Johnston Drive our home:

A unique home which brings California living style to Watchung

A peaceful and tranquil haven that provides a soothing oasis from the everyday humdrum of life. This light and airy home has made us feel as though we are living in our own personal wellness retreat.

Fabulous space for entertaining all year round. The flexible indoor-outdoor living layout has offered us plenty of space for friends and extended family. We have had several family gatherings over the years and what fun occasions they have been! There is also potential for you to make it your own by creating a media room or further living space on the lower level.

Location! This home is perfectly positioned on a superb hilltop and surrounded by all nature has to offer. We have enjoyed relaxing walks on the surrounding roads, by Watchung lake, and at Watchung Reservation. Everything you could want is also just a short drive away such as both public and private schools, surrounding towns, and fabulous restaurants and shopping. The close proximity to NYC, transport links and Newark airport have served us well on those days we are tempted to venture further afield either for social or work purposes.

It is our hope that we can replicate all this home has to offer at some stage in the next phase of our home owning adventure....provided we can find a home as good as this one!
