

Why we loved our home

Tell your new buyer when you moved here and what has happened in your home since? Share your memories that make the home special.

What makes the location so special? Is the neighborhood quiet, social, are you close to downtown or other common facilities that would make your home feel more convenient?

Why will the new buyer love living here as much as you did?